

WORKSHOP

Environmental and Natural Resources Conservation: Theoretical and Empirical Issues

15-16 November 2016, INRA-SupAgro Campus, Montpellier, France

15 November – Building 26 – Room Oceania

Time	Session
9:15	Welcome coffee
10:00	 Cees Withagen (keynote) VU University "Double limit pricing"
10:45	 Arnaud Reynaud INRA & TSE "A global meta-analysis of ecosystem services provided by lakes"
11:30	 Ingmar Schumacher IPAG Business School "Hidden but Necessary Conditions for Climate Engineering"
12:15	Lunch
14:00	 Charles Palmer London School of Economics and Political Science "Was Von Thünen Right? Cattle Intensification and Deforestation in Brazil"
14:45	 Charles Figuières Aix-Marseille University & GREQAM "MESI: a Mutidimensional Ecosystem Services Index"
15:15	 Hubert Stahn Aix-Marseille University & QREQAM "to be announced"
	Diner

16 November – Building 26 – Room Oceania

Time	Session
9:00	Welcome coffee
9:15		Daan van Soest (keynote) Tilburg University “Efficiency and practical feasibility of Payments for Ecosystem Services: Evidence from the field”
10:00		Matthieu Glachant MINES ParisTech & CERNA “Communication Strategies of Non-Governmental Organizations: Theory and Evidence”
10:45		Eduardo Souza-Rodrigues University of Toronto “Measuring the Effects of Priority Status on Deforestation in the Amazon”
11:30		Jesús Marín Solano Universitat de Barcelona “On the joint management in some common property resource games with heterogeneous agents”
12:15	Lunch
14:00		Alexandre Sauquet INRA & LAMETA “Does air pollution affect cognitive performances?”
14:45		Pierre Courtois INRA & LAMETA Managing biological invasions: how should priorities be set ?
15:15		Julie Subervie INRA & LAMETA “Paying smallholders not to cut down the Amazon forest”

Financial support was provided by:

Contact: Julie Subervie subervie@supagro.inra.fr